—Cutting up corn still continues.

—Geo. H. Ruddy has returned from Texas.

—Charley Steele is off to Iowa with some cattle.

—Prof. F. M. Sofge let for St. Louis last Thursday.

—Castor beans and flax seed are brought to town daily.

—Loafers have commenced to look up winter retreats.

—John Kelly has set up a barber shop at the city hotel.

—Samp. Epler started to California last Wednesday.

—Communion services at the Presbyterian church to-morrow.

—Mr. Asa Richardson of Lawrence, was in our town this week.

—The "ducking" season is upon us and our nimrods are happy.

—Public Schools have generally commenced throughout the county.

—Reimert, in W. W. Scott's store, does a general tailoring business.

—Candidates will soon be making their rounds among the dear people.

—Iola was well represented at the district fair at Neosho Falls this week.

—A communication from Geneva received but crowded over until next week.

—Northrup is offering furniture very low. Call at his store and examine stock.

—Be sure and bring in on Wednesday everything you have for exhibition at the fair.

—Messrs A. A. & L. C. Munger keep their market supplied with the choicest of meats.

—Mrs. Ragan, wife of Albert Ragan, living west of the river, died last Saturday night.

—The rate of tax on property in Iola for this year, for all purposes, will be 6.63 per cent.

—Mrs. S. J. Cowan returned home last Wednesday from her visit to her old home in Ohio.

—The way to make our fair a success is for every one to bring some article for exhibition.

—When you want jewelry, or watches or jewelry repaired, call on Geo. Walker at the postoffice.

—Monroe Goforth opens out a saloon in the building formerly used by Thorp for a barber shop.

—For all kinds of work usually done at a wagon and blacksmith shop, call on Gorrell & Robinson.

—You should keep slicked up during the fair. Call at Thorp's and get shaved, have your hair cut, etc.

—The temperance meeting at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening was well attended.

—Last week we mentioned that Bowlus had sold some land to a Mr. Bliss; we should have said Riggs.

—Candidates are expected to be at the fair next week every day and to be intensely interested in everything.

—Davis is closing out his stock of clothing, hats, caps, gloves, etc. Call and see him if you want a bargain.

—Remember that you can get better harness from Newton than can be had at any other harness shop in the county.

—Undoubtedly there will be some of the biggest corn at the fair next week that has ever been shown in the State.

—Sheriff Cozine, of Woodson county, has returned from his visit to Indiana and was in our town the first of the week.

—W. W. Sain, of the Woodson county Post published a small daily during the district fair at Neosho Falls this week.

—Capt. Thrasher, who has the contract for surveying railroad lands in the western part of the State is at home on a visit.

—J. F. Colborn has been receiving new goods, and when the ladies go shopping they should not fail to visit his store.

—Dan Thorp has moved his barber shop north of Northrup's store to the building formerly occupied by Buchanan & Howes.

—Among the specimens Bowlus has at his office is a bundle of prairie grass, grown on upland, that measures ten feet and two inches.

—A. L. Bear, on the Oange, is still buying corn; he wants five thousand bushels yet for which he will pay twenty cents, delivered.

—An enthusiastic temperance meeting on Sunday evening, and then on Monday evening the city council grant license for another saloon.

—Ireland has a splendid lot of piece goods for fall and winter clothing; "the which" it would be well to remember when you want new clothes.

—The quinine trade has been brisk for a few days past. At Jno. Francis & Co's. you will always find a druggist ready to attend to your wants.

—It is not to be expected of any of the candidates that they will volunteer to act on the committee for awarding the premium to the prettiest baby.

—Young ladies love candy, and young men—presuming that you wish to do your duty—we would suggest that Hayworth keeps a splendid assortment.

—Messrs. Adams, Davis, Burns, Edmunson and Strickland are the delegates chosen to represent Deer Creek township in the Republican convention next Monday.

—Next Saturday we will be able to announce our new county officers. They will be designated by the Republican convention that meets at the court house next Monday.

—The Republican delegates from the different townships will meet at the court house next Monday and nominate candidates for the various offices to be filled this fall.

—The reformers hold a delegate convention at the court house next Saturday for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for the county offices to be filled this fall.

—The weather has been pleasant most of the week, but winter will soon be here and it would be well to be ready for it. Call on Hartman & Casimire and leave orders for a new stove.

—Agnes May, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Francis died last Tuesday morning. Funeral services at the Presbyterian church on Thursday, conducted by Rev. C. T. Floyd.

—T. S. Stover, of Humboldt, candidate before the Republican convention for the office of County Clerk, was in town a short time yesterday. He was on his way to attend the fair at Neosho Falls.

—Cowan & Richards are shipping large quantities of butter, which indicates that they are having a good trade. They keep a good stock of groceries and provisions and pay strict attention to business.

—When you bring hay or grain to town and want it weighed, W. W. Scott is the man to call on; and if you should want dry goods or groceries you can have your orders filled by calling on the same person.

—Last Monday evening our City Council voted to grant license to Monroe Goforth to sell intoxicating liquors. The petition or request upon which said license was granted was signed by—Monroe Goforth.

—The time will soon be here when fires will have to be kept up constantly and the danger of being burned out will be greatly increased. If your house is not insured you would act the part of a wise man to call on Bowlus and take out a policy.

—If the weather continues favorable there will undoubtedly be more people at our fair than have ever attended before, and everybody who comes to town should call at Yates' one price cash dry goods house and see the piles of new goods he has been receiving.

—At the Republican primary meeting at the court house, last Thursday, it was resolved that the delegates chosen to represent Iola township in the county convention next Monday should, after the adjournment of this convention, meet and nominate a township ticket. Aspirants for township offices, please take notice.

—Bowlus has some vegetables and fruits that should be preserved for the centennial, and it would be well for those interested to make small contributions for this purpose. It is too much to ask of one man that he do most of the work and foot the bills also.

—Last Wednesday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Briggs were entertaining a few of their friends a young gentleman appeared suddenly in their midst, and at the suggestion of a prominent physician Old Reliable has concluded to take the stranger in and clothe and feed him. It is a ten pound boy.

—Five more colored men were up before Squire Palmer last Saturday for disturbing the peace and quiet of the community, and failing to pay the fines assessed against them spent Sunday wholly in the county jail. Two of them have since been released and the others remain the guests of the county.

—Sheriff Woodin, of Iola, paid our town a visit last Saturday. He came to invite a couple of our colored boys to go to Iola, which invitation they accepted, but it was soon ascertained that the complaining witness had made a mistake and the boys came home happy. Mr. Woodin is one of the best Sheriffs Allen county ever had. He is a candidate for re-election, and we hope he will succeed.

—Woodson County Post.

—The District Fair at Neosho Falls has this year proved to be more successful than its most sanguine friends had anticipated. The display of farm products was the largest and best ever made in this part of the State. While the exhibition of textile fabrics was perhaps not much larger than last year, yet the generality of the articles exhibited was much better. The exhibition of stock showed that the day of "razor backed" hogs and scrub cattle has passed and that Kansas deserves to be mentioned in the list of states producing fine stock. Although Jeff. Davis was not present to act as an advertisement, yet his absence was not regretted by the assembled multitude, who were highly entertained by addresses from Gov. Osborn and Parrott, the silver tongued orator. The large attendance of people from the adjacent counties and other parts of the State shows this fair to be unquestionably the fair of Southern Kansas.

—SPOON-VICTUALS FOR LOCAL MORALISTS.

It is not good to speak evil of all whom we know bad; it is worse to judge evil of any one who may prove good. To speak ill upon knowledge shows a want of charity; to speak ill upon suspicion shows a want of honesty. I will not speak so bad as I know of many; I will not speak worse than I know of any; I will not speak evil of others and not speak of it, is sometimes discretion; to speak of it others and not know it, is always dishonesty. He may be evil himself who speaks good of others upon knowledge, but he can never be good himself who speaks evil of others upon suspicion.

The above are the sentiments of one who understood well the nature and disposition of his fellow man, and whose charity and good sense are tersely expressed in the extract quoted. Will our local would-be moral dictators, from the street corners to the pulpit weight and study the precepts therein taught, or is their knowledge that which "passeth understanding." "Can a camel" indeed "pass through the eye of a needle?" Yours, Crys.

Iola, Sept. 27th, 1875.

WM. DAVIS, Sec'y.
